Annual Statement of Imports and Exports--Port of Milwaukee, 1857.

We present below the figures, in detail, showing the amount of different articles imported and exported at this port, during the past season of navigation, as taken from the books of the Custom House. We have to remark, in relation to the figures given for many of the items, that the aggregates do not present the amounts correctly, on account of the custom of reporting cargoes as so many "tons of merchandize," in many cases, while in others, cargoes are reported, part as general merchandize, and the balance in some detail. Thus, the items of nails, iron, sugar, molasses, cheese, glass, &c., do not show at all the aggregate amount of those articles imported: the greater portion of these items being included under the head of "tons merchandize," which figures are over and above the special items:

"Old Buck" in a Tight Place.

FORNEY, in the The Press, very unkindly reminds the President of the following passage, in his letter to Prof. SILLIMAN, touching the Kansas Constitutional Convention:

The Convention will soon assemble to perform the solemn duty of framing a Constitution for themselves and their posterity; and in the state of incipient rebellion which still exists in Kansas, it is my imperative duty to employ the troops of the United States, should this become necessary, in defending the convention against violence while framing a Constitution, and in protecting the bona fide inhabitants qualified to vote under the provisions of this instrument, in the free exercise of the right of suffrage, when it shall be SUBMITTED to them for their approbation or rejection.

CAN AN ENEMY OF "SLAVERY" BE A DEMOCRAT?--The exact question before the country for the past ten years, and likely to be before it for ten years to come, is Slavery.

The Richmond Enquirer quotes this from a Northern Democratic paper, and adds:

At the North and at the South the Democratic test of fealty is the same. When there were many issues it was impracticable to command that strict conformity to principle, on the part of all, which is now as imperative as it is easily ascained. Every Democrat in either section of the Union is now required to defend the same preciple.

THE NEW YORK CENTRAL R. R. COMPANY.--The following is a statement of the earnings of the N. Y. Cent'l R. R. for the month of October, 1856, compared with its earnings for the correspondi month of the previous year:

1857,	$651,441 97
1856,	950,379 99

DETROIT AND MILWAUKEE RAILWAY--ELECTION OF OFFICERS.--At the meeting of stockholders in this road, held on Thursday, N. P. Stewart was elected President, and the following gentlemen Directors: N. P. Stewart, Eber B. Ward, D. Bethune Duffield, Edmund A. Brush and J. W. Tillman, Devoit; Harvey B. Yale, Grand Rapids; William M. Meantell, Pontiac; Amos Gould, Owosso; A. F. Bel Ionia.

DUNN COUNTY.--seems that the town of Colfpnaw, in this coty, which was reported to us at 18 for Randall, is not counted, for some reason, in the official grass of the county.

INDEBTEDNESS OF OUR CITY.--The papers in some of the neighboring cities represent that Janesville is in debt $67½ and has levied a tax of only $52,000 to it. This is a slight mistake. The present indebtedness and the prospective wants of our city assury for the expenditures of the coming year, are estimated by a finance committee at $67,000, while the juncil considered that not more than $52,000 would be wanted, and voted that amount. Our cotemporaries will make the proper correction.--Janesville Gazette.

ANOTHER BLOW AT FREE KANSAS.--The U. S. land-office has been removed from Doniphan to Kickapoo. The former place has the misfortune, in administration eyes, to be a free State town, whilst the latter is notorious for its pro-slavery frauds. This removal is pay in hand from Mr. Buchanan for the spurious votes cast there at the last election. It is evidently determined at head-quarters that Kansas shall be a slave state, if executive patronage and the control of the land system can effect it.--St. Louis Democrat.

ACCIDENT.--F. Gresley, Conductor on the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R., was severely injured at this station, by being jammed between two cars whilst coupling. It was the 7 o'clock A. M. train for Milwaukee. He is, however, at Mr. Harkness's, where everything possible will be done for his relief.--Ripon Times.

A late American editor, who has gone over to the locofoco side of politics, complains of "a violent pain in the region of the left auricle of the heart." Perhaps he lies too much on that side.--Louisville Journal.

MARRIED.--Miss Gardner, who was made captive by the Indians at Spirit Lake and rescued from Inkpadutah's band, after suffering outrageous treatment, was married in August, and resides near Fort Dodge, Iowa.

A NOBLE ACT.--On Saturday evening last policeman Hauck and Schenkel did a noble act in rescuing a young and innocent girl from the hands of those who would have led her to ruin. The story, as we learned it from one of the good-hearted officers is this: The two policemen were in search of a dishonest character, who they were led to suppose had taken shelter in a well known place of infamy in the 2d Ward, we believe, and while searching the house, they noticed a respectable and intelligent looking little girl, of about 13 or 14 years of age. Her appearance showed that she was not what one might expect to meet in such a den of vice, and naturally excited their curiosity. They asked her name and enquired how she came there, and upon discovering that she was ignorant of the character of the people with whom she was living, they took her away, and one of them brought her to his own house, where she now is, and will remain until he can inform her mother, who lives about 6 miles from the city, of her situation.

The girl's name is Emma Leonard, and it appears that the woman who keeps the house went to her mother, a poor widow, and desired to hire her daughter as a sewing girl. The mother, not knowing, undoubtedly, the character of the woman, allowed her to take her daughter in the city. The girl had been but a short time to the place when the police found her, and as far as we can learn she had not been misused by the inmates of the house, but was however glad to get away, even with a stranger, when she learned the character of the people.

The police deserve all praise for the interest they took in saving this unsuspecting girl from the fate which undoubtedly awaited her had she not been taken from this vile place, and no doubt they will have the prayers of the widowed mother. Such deeds deserve remembrance.

A CARD.--At a meeting of Milwaukee Engine Co. No. 1* held at their place on Tuesday evening, Dec. 4th, 1857, it was unanimously,

Resolved, That the thanks of this Co. be tendered to the Officers and Members of Supply Hose Co., No. 1, for their gentlemanly treatment and use of their house for the past eighteen months, and should an opportunity ever occur to reciprocate we shall be happy to do so, if we ever are so fortunate as to get a house.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolution be presented to the Supply Hose Co., No. 1, and published in the daily papers, signed by the Officers of this Company.

R. ADLEN, JR., Secretary.

A PERILOUS VOYAGE FOR A SMALL BOAT.--A couple of fishermen, says the Wisconsin, named R. Chapin and Fitzgerald, got here last Friday, from the Manitous. They had been up there all summer fishing, and came here in their fish boat. They were two weeks in getting from the Manitous here, and were out in all the rough weather which prevailed in the latter half of last month. Their little craft had some hard sailing, but she managed to get in here all sound. It was a long and risky voyage.

TO THE SOVEREIGNS OF MILWAUKEE.--Be pleased to change the by name heretofore given to our beloved city, from the "City of Bricks" to the "City of High Taxes," and oblige

Your fellow Sovereign,

ROUGH AND READY ENGINE CO. No. 4.--The 6th Annual Ball of Engine Company No. 4 comes off at Young's Hall, on the 22d inst. This will, no doubt, be one of the gayest parties of the season. Our people generally are aware of the fact that the Rough and Ready boys are always ready, and not at all rough, when there is anything nice to be done.

AN OLD PROPHESY.--In an old poem, preserved in the British Museum, occurs the following "weather item" for all time:

"If Cryssmas day on the Fryday be,
The fyrste of winter herde shall be,
With frost and snowe, and with fludi,
But the laste unde therof ys good.
Agyn the Somer shall be good also,
Pelkes in hyr yere shall have grete woe.

Thus far, this old saying is verified this season. The first of our winter has been hard enough.

STRICKLAND'S NORTH-WESTERN ALMANAC.--Strickland & Co., enterprising Book-sellers of this city, have just published a large edition of an almanac for gratuitous distribution. Besides the usual calendar, it contains much in the way of statistics of the State, numerous advertisements, &c.

MARINE.--The bark Badger State put back on Saturday night, and did not get away till yesterday morning, we believe.

The schooner Emma arrived with a cargo of lumber from Manitowoc.

The steamer Huron arrived yesterday from Two Rivers, and cleared for Chicago.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 7th.--DRUNK--Heinrich Bochmonk, fined $10 and costs; Michael Murphy fined $1 and costs.

DISORDERLY--Edward Philing, Thomas Kirby and Daniel Dunn, fined $3 and costs each; Oswald Weing fined $15, and Michael Fagan fined $10 and costs.

ANNUAL BALL OF OCEAN ENGINE CO.--We are informed by one of the members that the annual party of Ocean Engine Co. No. 5, will take place on the 17th inst., at the Republican House, instead of the 19th, as heretofore announced. Arrangements are being made to make this equal to any ball of the season, and we hope the public will do the fair thing by No. 5.

THAT TRUMPET.--The silver trumpet which Gardiner put up for the fire company which would toll most tickets to his benefit, was presented to the foreman of No. 6, his boys having disposed of the largest number. There was quite a crowd at Concert Hall that night, and the entertainment passed off satisfactorily.

SUPPLY HOSE BALL.--We notice that the young folks generally are making great preparations for Supply Hose Ball, which it is designed, shall be the Ball of the winter. It takes place, our readers well know, on New Year's Eve.

REASONABLE LANDLORD.--Mr. J. H. Crampton, we learn, has reduced the rent of one of his stores, occupied on Wisconsin street, from $800 to $600 for the year. It was rented for $800, but in consideration of the hard times he threw off one-fourth.

INCENDIARISM.--Yesterday a man named Horatio Maius was arrested on a charge of firing the building No. 72 East Water Street on Saturday night, which fire was extinguished. He will be examined in the Police Court to-day.

BOARD.--We would call the attention of persons in want of pleasant Rooms and Board to the advertisement of House, north-west corner of Spring and Fifth streets.

YOU WILL READ Caleb Wall's new advertisement this morning. A great sale of Furs is going to take place; he also offers a great chance for some one to go into the dry goods business.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.--Among all preparations for the hair that have been introduced as infallible, none has ever given the satisfaction or gained the popularity that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative now has. It's Restorative has passed through the ordeal of innumerable fashionable toilets, and the ladies, wherever they have tested it, pronounce it a peerless article. They find, where the hair is thinned, that it creates a fresh growth--that it fully restores the vegetative power of the roots on the denuded places, and causes the fibres to shoot forth anew--that it dissolves and removes dandruff, prevents grayness, restores the hair to its original color when grayness has actually supervened, gives a rich lustre, imparts the softness and flexibility of silk to the hair, and keeps it always luxuriant, healthy and in full vigor.--*N. Hog Market.

ST. LOUIS--Receipts of hogs are something better, and drovers are offering a good many. They are averse, however, to accepting buyers' rates. At the market, however, has declined recently at all the leading packing points of the West, we suppose they will soon close with the offers made them, and a liberal increase in operations will follow. At Springfield, Ill., Leech had killed, up to the 5d, 3,000 head. He is now paying $3,80@4 net, dividing on 200 lbs.--Republican, 4th.

CINCINNATI.--Hogs were steady at yesterday's prices. Hewes, it is writing, has over 50 offers. About three-fourths of the hogs received with the last three days are being packed on drover's account, and the receipts yesterday and to-day were light. Good hogs, averaging 200 lbs, sold readily at $5,00. Two lots were also called $5,75a5,10; some heavy hogs having been sold at this rate. We would remark, that our quotations are cash prices, there being little or nothing doing on time. The receipts during the last 24 hours comprised 7,497 head.--Cin. Gaz., 4th.

Marine Intelligence.

☞ Capt. Chadwick, of the propeller Young American, deserves much credit for his persevering efforts in breaking up the ice in the Welland Canal from above Thorold to the entrance on this lake. The captains and crews of the schrs L. J. Latham and Oneida Chief, united with the propeller's force in cutting this ice, which was full six inches thick the whole distance. These vessels got through after eleven days hard service. The Latham had from four to five teams hold of her all the way.--Oswego Times.

FROM LAKE SUPERIOR.--We learn from the Detroit Free Press that the propeller Mineral Rock arrived at Detroit on the 4th inst., from Lake Superior. She experienced much cold weather, and met with considerable quantities of ice above the Sault, having arrived there on Thursday morning, and not leaving before Saturday night. Thus she very fortunately escaped the terrible storm of wind and snow that proved so disastrous to the many vessels on Lakes Huron and Michigan. On Sunday afternoon, while going up the canal and the river beyond, large quantities of ice were encountered.

She made Marquette on Monday, 23d; Wednesday she arrived at Copper Harbor, Thursday at Eagle Harbor, and Friday at Ontonagon. More or less ice was found at all these ports. At Ontonagon it was ten inches in thickness on the river, and teams were crossing and teams were crossing and recrossing with as much ease and safety as they would upon a bridge.

She left Ontonagon the same day (Friday) that she arrived, and in coming down stopped at all the ports at which she touched in going up. During the time she was in Lake Superior the ice formed eight inches thick in the Sault. The warm weather of the latter part of last week and the first of this, however, had rotted it so much that she found no difficulty in coming through.

Erie Railroad Troubles, &c.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.

The trouble among the Erie Railroad laborers at Piermont was owing to a reduction of wages from $1 to 75 cents per day. The men refused to work, and 200 others were sent up from this city, but were prevented from working by the old force, who used clubs, stones and other missiles upon them. A force of police went up with them yesterday, and at a late hour last night information was received her to the effect that the steamer with her party arrived at Piermont shortly after dark, and found the place garrisoned by about six hundred men under arms, and a brass cannon planted to prevent their landing.

A parley was held, but the old force resolutely refused to adicate. They offered to go to work at the old rates, but would resist to the death, the attempt of any body of workmen sent to supercede them.

The steamer was hauled off out of cannon shot and anchored until morning.

LATER.--It is now stated that no fight occurred at Piermont, that no arms had been used, and that the cannon story was entirely false.

A dispatch to the railroad officers in this city this morning states that everything was quiet, and the new men were going to work at reduced prices.

The funeral of Crawford, the sculptor, took place to-day in St. John's Church. The remains were removed to Greenwood, where a suitable monument will soon be erected.

Judge Ingraham delivered this morning, in the general term of the Court of Common Pleas, an opinion adverse to so much of the Post Warden act, passed by the Legislature last spring, as attempted to confer on a Board of Wardens, appointed by the Governor and Senate, the exclusive right to survey ships and cargoes. Judges Daley and Brady concurred.

At the adjourned meeting of the New York stockholders of the New York Central Railroad to-day, the following ticket was nominated for Directors:

E. Corning, Albany; Dean Richmond, Buffalo; J. H. Obadel, Auburn; Joseph Fields, Rochester; Horace White, Syracuse; A. C. Schenectady; Russell Sage, Troy; J. V. L. Pruyn, Albany; J. L. Schoolcraft, Albany; Nathaniel Thayer, Boston; Isaac Townsend, New York; J. D. Moore, New York; John F. Seymour, Utica.

The draft of a letter to the directors as regards the details of the management, recommends:

First, That no debt be created in any one year exceeding $250,000, without first obtaining the consent of the stockholders.

Second, That the company should not be implicated as endorser in any way with another road or allow its gurrantees to be used for the benefit of any officer or directors.

Third, That all free passes, except to directors, be discontinued.

Fourth, That a committee of directors or agents appointed by them, shall make all purchases for the road, and that a board of auditors shall be formed, without whose signature no bills shall be presented to the Treasurer.

Fifth, That a committee of five stockholders (not directors) shall be appointed, who shall annually, thirty days before the election, make an examination of the affairs of the road, aided by accountants at the expense of the Company; and that twenty days before the annual election, a general meeting of the stockholders shall be held, to hear the report and nominate candidates for directors.

A man giving his name as Charles E. Warren, of St. Louis, has been arrested in Jersey City on suspicion of being concerned in a heavy robbery in Cincinnati. $8,000 worth of watches and jewelry were found in his possession.

The steamship Atlantic left for Liverpool today at noon, with 56 passengers and $ 781,650 in specie.

The Fugitive Slave Case at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 5.

A large crowd assembled in the Senate Chamber this morning to hear the decision of Judge Wallace in the fugitive slave case. The Judge decided that he could not traverse the decision of the U. S. Commissioner, and that the negro must be remanded back to Slavery.

The U. S. Marshall and his assistants started with the negro at seven o'clock this evening for Louisville, where he will return him to Valandingham.

The case before the Mayor against Valandingham, for kidnapping, has been dismissed.

The excitement has been so great that some difficulty was apprehended at the cars when the Marshall took the negro aboard.

The Craddock Murder Case.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 4.

Commonwealth, of Kentucky, vs. Miller and others. Primary examination closed. Seven persons accused by Miller of the murder of Craddock were discharged. Miller's testimony occupied two days. The defendants have Miller, severally introduced testimony, proving an alibi, and good character, also giving Miller a bad character and unworthy of belief. District Attorney Craig, moved the commitment of Miller for perjury.--The jury rendied that he was already held on the charge of murder by his own confession. Tremendous aplause by the large crowd upon the discharge of parties implicated in the murder by Miller.

The Weather.

UTICA, N. Y., Dec. 5.

The weather here is not very cold, but it is snowing hard with an east wind blowing.

I GAVE NOTICE through our papers last week, that I had a large stock of Dry Goods from N. York, from Sixth Avenue, No. 290, corner of Twenty first st. The goods are all from New York, and no other place; and as regards the goods, there are not many fancy ones; so much the better. They are plain, substantial goods, which we all want every day in our families. The goods are now all open in the store on the west side of the river, formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, where they will remain for thirty or sixty days. It is no intention of mine whatever to open a retail store, although I have as much right to do as I please, as any one else has to do as he pleases. I have heard that several of our merchants complain that I am injuring the trade by selling goods to consumers. I gladly say to those merchants that the goods are all paid for, and if they will come and purchase them of me at a reduced price, I will give them credit, provided they can give me good paper, endorsed six and twelve months; or I will sell the entire stock out, which amounts to twenty thousand dollars, on the following terms: One-fourth cash in three months--balance in one, two or three years, with interest per cent. interest, secured by a mortgage on property in our city. But I shall continue to retail the goods until they are all sold, and I would say to all of our citizens to go and get great bargains. There is no goods but what I want at thirty per cent less than ever sold in this city before. Mr. Ayres has the entire charge of the store and goods. I attend to all auction business at the old corner, and will give it that strict attention I always have done. Any one having stocks of goods to sell, I am ready at all times to purchase the same. Call on me.

MILWAUKEE:

TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMB'R 8

The Official Vote.

The State Journal gives the following as the official footings on the several candidates for State Officers in every county in the State, except La Pointe, from which no returns have yet been received :

Republicans.		Democrats.
Governor.....Randall,	44,597	Cross,	44,135
Lt. Gov.....Ecture,	44,873	Campbell,	44,481
Sec. State.....Thomas,	45,279	Jones,	45,449
Treasurer.....Hastings,	44,629	Habich,	44,408
Sup. of Ed'n.....McIlvain,	44,405	Draper,	44,757
Atty. Gen'l.....Jackson,	44,361	Bouck,	44,764
Comptroller.....McGregor,	46,921	Squires,	43,814
State Prison Com. MacGraw,	44,498	McGarry,	43,195

The majorities are as follows :

Randall, 512 ; Campbell, 61 ; Jones, 1,660 ; Hastings, 401 ; Bouck, 402 ; Draper, 352 ; Squires, 833 ; MacGraw, 603.

Lapointe, the only County to be heard from, has been reported at 40 dem. majority. None of the "supplements" are included in the above totals, as they cannot be counted except in violation of law, and would not alter the result on any candidate, if they were counted. They would add about 650 to the Democratic and about 400 to the Republican aggregates.

Comparing the total vote, with these additions, with the official canvass last fall, we have the following result :

	1856.		1857.
Fremont,	66,090	Randall,	45,097
Buchanan,	52,857	Cross,	44,835
Total vote,	118,987		99,932

It will be seen that the Republican vote has fallen off about 21,000, the Democratic vote about 8,000 ; and the aggregate vote some 29,000. These figures carry with them their own moral. Let Republicans every where lay it to heart, and resolve never again to be "caught napping." We have barely escaped defeat, when we ought to have elected our whole ticket by 10,000 majority.

A P. O. View of the Kansas Question.

The Madison Argus, the editor whereof is now seeking service under President BUCHANAN, thus summarily cuts the Gordian Knot of the Kansas imbroglio :

THE KANSAS MATTER.—Our opinion of this matter is briefly this—the Convention framed an unexceptionable Constitution—attached to it is a slavery clause which is submitted to the people. The Free State men can defeat the slavery clause if they will, and Kansas then becomes a State with a good Constitution, prohibiting slavery.

If the Free State men refuse to vote on the question, their act makes Kansas a slave State. Now will they refuse to vote ?

It is really refreshing to hear these organs of "Democracy," these champions of "Popular Sovereignty," these mouthing advocates of the rights of the People of Kansas to form their own institutions, thus deliberately stultify themselves, and at the bidding of their Southern taskmasters and the beck of the Federal Administration, unblushingly defend the action of the bogus Convention in refusing to submit the Constitution to the People of Kansas ! Is it possible that such miserable pretenders to the name, such base traitors to the principles of Democracy, can any longer impose upon the American People ?

SUICIDE OF MR. FEAGAN, AT SHEBOYGAN.—A friend at Sheboygan, under date of Nov. 30, sends us the following particulars of the melancholy suicide mentioned in our paper yesterday :

SHEBOYGAN, NOV. 30.

MESSRS. EDITORS :—THOMAS FEAGAN, a prominent citizen of this place and a delegate from this city to the late Republican Convention, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn, near his residence, on 6th street, last evening.

MR. FEAGAN was a salt manufacturer at Salina, New York, for some years, and made about $10,000 in that business. He came to reside here six years ago, and has been since engaged in real estate operations, and successfully. He is probably worth $25,000 at a low estimate of his property. It appears that he has had, of late, most gloomy forebodings occasioned by the stagnation in real estate operations, and having some thousand, or two of dollars to pay upon purchases, taxes, &c. His pride and sensibility prevented his disclosing his mind and feelings to any one, and, brooding constantly over imaginary calamities, he could not eat or sleep for many days, and this finally led him to self-destruction.

MR. FEAGAN was esteemed for his integrity, intelligence and public spirit. He was about 37 years old, and leaves a widow, but no children.

CONDITION OF THE U. S. TREASURY.—The condition of the Treasury, November 23, was as follows :—

Balance on hand - - -	$7,328,451
Paid out during previous week -	1,285,404
Received " " " -	652,642

The "surplus on hand," under diminishing receipts and increasing expenditures, is rapidly falling off. Nevertheless the official estimates of expenses for the next year exceed seventy four millions of dollars. This is Democratic "Retrenchment" with a vengeance!

POST-OFFICE CHANGE.—Mr. W. S. Wait, late Postmaster at Newport, in Columbia Co., has been removed, and E. P. King, Esq., appointed to succeed him. As Mr. Wait is a noisy black republican, we are of opinion that the party did well to dismiss him.—News.

Truly, an excellent reason for removing a Postmaster ; the P. O. Department being administered, under the Slum Democratic rule, not for the good of the People, but for the benefit of the party.

BIRD-CAGE FOR A GOVERNOR.—The Columbus Gazette says that Gov. CHASE, of Ohio, has purchased the beautiful residence of Dr. CARTER, opposite the Starling Medical College, in Columbus, and that he intends to occupy it as soon as the workmen can put it in complete repair.

The Gazette says :—The price paid for it was eleven thousand dollars, about two-thirds of its original cost. The Governor has purchased this cage, we know ; the name of the bird that will adorn it, we don't know.

YANKEE PRODUCTIONS FOR EGYPT.—The viceroy of Egypt gives a decided preference to the work of our American artizans, in which he shows excellent sense. A barque is loading at Boston or Alexandria, with a complete ponton train, manufactured by Boston mechanics to the order of the viceroy. The train consists of twenty-six wagons, and will carry the materials for constructing a bridge three hundred feet in length. The cost of this is upwards of thirty thousand dollars. There are also boxes of tools of every description for the use of a moving army. One box of joiner's tools, from the manufactory of F. G. Gouch of Worcester, are much admired for their superior make and exquisite finish. Osgood Bradley, car manufacturer at Worcester, has an order from the viceroy for a train of eight-wheeled passengers cars, the cost of which will exceed $100,000.

AN INFERNAL MACHINE.—The Montgomery Mail, having previously given some account of an infernal machine recently invented by a gentleman of Albany, says : "We saw it at the fair grounds yesterday. There is no doubt that it can be appointed as an instrument for immense destruction of human life in time of war. When steam power shall have been applied to it, it will send bullets in such quick succession that the different reports cannot be distinguished one from another, and the leaden messengers of death will go on their errands of distruction in a stream, rather than one at a time; not unlike a volume of water from the nozzle of a fire engine. We do not mean that it will send molten lead, but that the bullets dropped into the machine one at a time, will flow out with tremendous velocity in a stream."

Appropriations for Next Year.

The Secretary of the Treasury has prepared, for the information of Congress, the following estimate of appropriations required for the public service, during the next fiscal year. The grand total is seventy-four millions :

—TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Nov. 23, 1857.

SIR—Agreeably to the joint resolution of Congress of the 7th January, 1846, I have the honor to transmit, for the information of the House of Representatives, printed estimates of the appropriations proposed to be made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1859, viz :—

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
HOWELL COBB,
Secretary of the Treasury.

To the Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Kansas Troubles—The democratic rebels—Their probable course.

The N. Y. Tribune has the following "one, two, three" on the Kansas question, which we believe, expresses the general sentiment of the friends of a free state :

I. Mr. Buchanan and his Cabinet are emphatically a unit on this question. After having heard Walker fully, they have resolved to sustain the bogus Convention, and lend their powerful aid to the nefarious work of imposing its hidden iniquity on Kansas as her State Constitution. There is no room for doubt that their course is fully and unchangeably resolved on. They hold in their hands a public patronage amounting to many millions per annum ; they tune the organs that live upon Custom-house and Post-Office patronage. In short, whatever they decide to do or have done, no matter how unjust or tyrannical, will be commended, and by millions accepted as "National Democracy." When and where have Messrs. Douglas, Walker, and Forney shown themselves ready to sacrifice their position and associations as Democrats to their convictions of Justice and Right ?

II. Mr. Buchanan has thus far treasured his patronage as a miser does his gold. Nearly all the Foreign Missions, with a Justiceship in the Supreme Court and many of the best Consulates and some capital Collectorships, Marshalships, &c., are still undisposed of. They have been held back as if on purpose to quell such a rebellion as is now threatened. Douglas wants some of these for his intimate friends and personal partizans; Walker has expected some good post as the reward for his banishment to Kansas.—Every influential member of "the party" expects something for himself or for some one or more in whose fortune he is interested. Clearly, this is no time for a formidable bolt from the edicts of the Grand Lama who has the disposal of the offices.

III. "But how can Douglas & Co. sustain the bogus Convention, in view of its outrages on and ostentatious defiance of Popular Sovereignty ?" we are asked. Our answer is a Yankee one :—How could they sustain the tyrannical acts of the bogus Legislature, not only chosen by invasive Missouri votes, but answerably proved to have been so by the House Investigation ? How could they sustain the sack of Lawrence and the expulsion of the Free-State inhabitants of Leavenworth ? How vote to confirm the virtual murderer of William Phillips as Receiver at an important Land Office ? How support the whole series of crimes and villainies that have blackened the history of Kansas ? Having seen Stephen A. Douglas stand up day after day in the Senate and pettifog the case of the enslavers and ravagers of Kansas against the clearest demonstrations of their infamy, it will be hard for us to believe that he will now take the side of justice and true democracy. We are ready to yield to the force of evidence, but it must be evidence about which there can be no mistake.

Our belief is that, after a season of bickering and differing, there will be a conference and an arrangement—that Herod and Pilate will become once more such friends as they formerly were—once more such friends as they formerly were—that a juggling bond of agreement will be found or devised—and that Kansas will be the victim of this diplomacy.

A RAILROAD QUARREL.—The hasty peace patched up between the rival lines of railroad already shows signs of rupture. The Cleveland Herald complains that the southern line, from Cincinnati to New York via Baltimore, have put their rates for four at $1,55, while the Northern lines cannot take it, by agreement, under $1,75. As a result, says the Herald :

"Business on the Northern routes is paralyzed. Freights are held back because there is no margin for profit. The mills of this city contemplate stopping as soon as their stocks are ground out, as they cannot compete in New York against Southern flour with 20 cents advantage on their side. The millers at Indiannapolis, and through the great milling points of Indiana, say they will not ship another barrel this way at the present prohibitory tariff ; but, if they ship at all, will send to the river.

There is a clause in the agreement by which any two competing lines uniting in giving five days notice to the other lines, can withdraw from the compact as regards rates of freight.—The two roads to which the Northwestern lines look for relief are the N. Y. Central and the N. Y. & Erie. They have been hood-winked into this arrangement ; they are losing their life-blood by the cunning schemes of their Southern rivals, and, if they would save themselves from speedy bankruptcy, they must break up this unjust compact.

News from New Mexico.

From the Santa Fe Gazette, October 31.

We learn from a gentleman, recently from Taos county, that about the first of the present month, Don Lino Vigil, brother of the present Sheriff of that county, was killed by Ezra N. De Pew, in a personal rencontre, in the town of Taos It seems that De Pew, who was at the time the Sheriff and Deputy Marshal, held a warrant for the arrest of Vigil, the execution of which was resisted by the latter, who was at the time intoxicated. As Vigil advanced upon De Pew with a drawn bowie-knife, the latter drew his revolver and shot him, the wound taking instant fatal effect.

The Mexican who brutally murdered Mr. Booth, at Walnut Creek, last month, by splitting his head open with an axe, was arrested in San Miguel county, last week. The evidence upon which the arrest was made was his own confession, made in a boastful manner. He should be made an example of.

THE NAVAJOS.—Col. James L. Collins, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for this Territory, returned a few days since from a visit to the Navajo country, where he had gone to be present at the distribution of the annuity goods to those Indians. We learn from Col. C., that about 2,500 of the tribe were present, and were much pleased with the goods given them. They also received their new agent, Col. W. C. Harley, very kindly. They are disposed to be friendly both with Mexicans and Americans. The Navajo is the largest and most powerful tribe of Indians in New Mexico, and can muster 3,000 warriors. They are of the belief that they are the greatest people living. They have no idea of the power of our government, and therefore we think it would be advisable for the Indian Bureau at Washington to authorize a visit to the States of some of the chief men of this tribe, as well as of other tribes. It would have a most salutary effect, and impress them with their own insignificance as compared with the United States.

Our city presents quite a lively appearance at this time. A number of army officers from a distance, are here, to attend the court martial which meets here on Monday next, to try one of the military officers.

☞ From the tenth to the twelfth of last month, inclusive, there was no revolution in Mexico. One old Mexican gentleman hung himself in consequence of this state of affairs on the eleventh. He left a note intimating that he had been accustomed to his revolution every morning after breakfast for the last forty years, and, he couldn't live to see his country degenerate, etc.

Fall of Delhi and Relief of Lucknow.

From the spirited summary of these two operations in the Indian war, as given in the London Times, we copy the following, representing a condensed picture of those operations, worthy of record among the most brilliant military feats in history :

FALL OF DELHI.

On the 11th our batteries opened, and by the next day 50 guns and mortars were pouring a continuous hail of shot and shell into the city. For three days the fire continued night and day ; but even then the stubborn spirit of the mutineers did not give way. Though unable to fire from their bastion, they sent out guns into the open—"got a gun to bear from a hole broken in the long curtain wall, sent rockets from one of their Martello towers, and maintained a storm of musketry from their advanced trench and from the city walls." But when things came to close quarters, then the difference between European and Asiatic valor made itself known. On the 14th the assault was made. We need not recapitulate the incidents of this eventful day, but we may call attention to the devoted courage of Lieut. Salkeld and his comrades, who formed the party which blew open the Cashmere Gate. Never was the Victoria Cross better merited than by this gallant officer and his companions in heroism. Gen. Nicholson then formed his troops and led on the first column. In advancing toward the Lahore Gate he met the wound which has terminated his noble career at the early age of 35. Three of the columns were successful ; the fourth, unfortunately, miscarried.

On the 14th the British lost 61 officers and 1,178 men killed and wounded. Yet the city was not to be won in a day. For six days more the enemy fought from street to street and from house to house. On the 17th our batteries commanded the bridge, the Selimghur, and the Palace, which was kept under an incessant fire of shells. The mutineers, with a coolness worthy of Gortschakoff, came to the conclusion that the town could not be held, and accordingly sent on their baggage, with a determination to follow when he had gained a fair start. The town-people took refuge in the Palace or began to fly the city.—Great numbers of the people came into the districts occupied by our troops, and were passed out of the town unhurt. Streams of people and animals also poured out from the Ajmere-gate. This strange exodus is one of the most striking things in the history of warfare. A few days later the city is described as absolutely void of inhabitants. Houses, bazaars, mosques, were tenantless, and everything left as at the moment of departure. The capital, of Mussulman India, with its 160,000 inhabitants, was changed to the aspect of Pompeii, or those doomed cities of Arabian fable where the God of Mohammed turned a whole race of idolaters to stone.

RELIEF OF LUCKNOW.

The Ganges was crossed by the troops on the 19th by the heavy guns on the 20th. The passage took place almost without resistance, and the enemy fell back on a strong position at no great distance from the river. On the 21st this position was attacked and carried. The rebels lost four guns, and suffered severely, especially from our small force of volunteer cavalry (under two hundred men,) led by Sir James Outram, who are stated in Havelock's dispatch to have sabred 120 of the enemy. No time was lost in pressing the advantage thus gained. On the 21st, the day of the engagement, the British force advanced 20 miles, the next day 14. The retreat of the enemy thus hotly pursued was too precipitate to allow of their breaking down the Bunnee Bridge. On the 23d and 24th, the advance appears to have been continued without interruption : on the latter day the relieving army distinctly heard the firing at Lucknow, and the General in command immediately ordered "a royal salute from "our 24-pounders to announce our approach to our friends ;" that was the first announcement to the heroic little garrison at Lucknow that the hour of deliverance was at hand.

On the 25th, at the distance of five miles from Lucknow, the British came in sight of the enemy —in number about 14,000—entrenched in a position which appeared impregnable. There was not a moment's hesitation about the attack.—"Havelock went at it at once ; and after a desperate struggle our troops, to the cry, "Remember Cawnpore," carried it." This is where the great loss took place. Here fell Neill—here fell between 400 and 500 of his gallant brothers in arms. Beyond this we know nothing except through the medium of the telegram. By this means we know that the result of this action was the immediate relief of the Residency ; that on the 28th the batteries of the besiegers were assaulted ; that between that day and the 29th the possession of the city was desperately contested; finally, that the resolution had been taken to fall back on Cawnpore with a portion of the force, leaving the residue to strengthen the garrison of Lucknow.

The devoted heroism of the little band of Englishmen who held out at the Residency of Lucknow against the swarms of bloodthirsty fiends who, fresh from the brutalities of Cawnpore swarmed around them, is only equalled by the determined resolution with which their brother Englishmen fought their way to their relief ; and both give additional occasion of pride to all who are descended from Englishmen.

Washington Items and Rumors.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2, 1857.

The defeat of the democratic party in your city is the source of general regret here among the friends of the administration. You may anticipate some changes among your officials.

A large number of members of Congress arrived this evening. Messrs. Corning, Searing, Russell and Haskin, from New York, have arrived and are stopping at Willard's.

There is a determination on the part of several democratic Senators to refuse to go into caucus unless all the officers of the Senate are balloted for. They will urge a change throughout as well as in the office of Sergeant at Arms.

There is a rumor afloat that there will be an effort made to intrude the Kansas imbroglio in the organization of the House. The republicans are endeavoring to get Mr. Hickman, of Pennsylvania, to become a candidate for Speaker.—He is a democrat, and while he may differ with the administration on some points in relation to Kansas, he intends to sustain the President in the man.

Judge Douglas arrived here this evening. His friends here indignantly deny that he will take ground against the administration on the Kansas question. His enemies secretly rejoice in the prospect of the injury it will do him.

The President will send into the Senate the name of Nathaniel Clifford, of Maine, formerly United States Attorney General, for the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench.

Samuel Ingham, of Connecticut, has been appointed Commissioner of Customs in the Treasury Department, vice Gov. Anderson resigned.

There is no truth in the report that Lord Napier and Count Sartiges have addressed a joint note of remonstrance to General Cass in regard to General Walker and the Sillibusters. No such note has been received by the Secretary of State. —Cor. N. Y. Herald Dec. 3.

ELECTION BUNCOMB.—During the campaign in this State Mr. Cross, the Democratic nominee for Governor, was in New York city, the Milwaukee News said, for purpose of borrowing money for the use of the City. A few days prior to election the News published the following important despatch :

New York, Oct. 22d.

I have succeeded in raising money for the Harbor and School Houses, will be home soon.

J. B. CROSS.

This of course was a good thing, and the democratic papers trumpted it throughout the State, to the honor and glorification of Mr. Cross.—Those who attended the Democratic doings at the Court House, in this Village just before election, will remember how proudly neighbor Preston dwelt upon this not—how he held it up dressed in all the disinterested patriotism appropriate to the occasion. It was a telling hit. The man who in these times could borrow fifty thousand dollars at only seven per cent interest, had certainly no mean pretentions for the office of Governor.

Well, it seems that it was too good to be true. All Milwaukee is inquiring for the $50,000, but it is not to be found!—Elkhorn Ind.

☞ We wish to say to every person who reads this, that there is an article known as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy, which can be relied on as certain to cure Liver Complaint in any of its forms, such as Jaundice, Dyspepsia, and numerous other complaints, described in another column, besides which, it is one of the greatest preparations or cures for consumption, taken in early stages, that is now known.

We take it for granted, as experiment has proven, that diseases of the lungs are not generally the first cause of consumption, but a debilitated system caused by the improper action of the liver, reduces the power of the lungs to resist or throw off diseases caused by cold and irritation, leaving the lungs at the mercy of each disease, because the liver has incapacitated them from performing their proper action of throwing off diseased matter caused by cold, thus to prevent consumption, cure the liver, and keep the system strong enough to throw off slight diseases of the lungs.

There is not in the world a better liver remedy, or a cure for debilitated system, than Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, for it has been fully tried in a large and extended practice, till its results are fully known, and now it is offered as a tried remedy, and one that can be relied on. REDUCTION IN THE PRICE OF THE

BADGER STATE SAFES!

NOT TO BE SURPASSED in any respect by any safe manufactory in the whole country, we have just completed our arrangements for manufacturing the

BADGER STATE SAFES,

Upon a larger scale than we have ever done heretofore by the introduction of new machinery, and by increasing our manufacturing facilities.

FIRE'S BURGLAR PROOF!

Our SAFES, as is well known, are more substantially constructed, and more handsomely finished than any other safe manufactured in America, and consequently it has cost us more in getting up our safes than any other manufacturing establishment in the country. But, notwithstanding this, we are now enabled to offer our safes to the public at

The Watchers.

I.

Through the long night the winds are wailing;
Dark clouds above the earth are trailing;
Tears from the skies are falling fast,
And sighs are borne on every blast,
For the winds of the night are wailing;

II.

In a lone cot sit watchers weeping;
Near the couch their vigils keeping;
Tears from their eyes are falling fast;
The rose lies crushed—its fragrance past,
And watchers, the watchers sit weeping.

III.

Cease, watchers! cease those tears from streaming;
Bright on that soul the sun is beaming;
Stay not her joy with parting moan;
Loved ones are three—God calls her home;
Cease, then, oh! cease, those tears from streaming.

IV.

The storm-clouds brawl, the morning besmeth;
Calmly she rests as one who dreameth;
She lands not now their tears and signs—
Angels have borne her to the skies;
In peace she sleepeth morning beameth.

TYPES AND GRAPES.—Although the ancient phrases "Telegraphic," "Local Items," "Marine Intelligence," &c., &c., were "very pretty fellows in their day," like those other ancients spoken of by the man in the play, still they have become deplorably common; and we think strongly of establishing something more pointed and expressive by way of heads for the different departments of the Bulletin. We propose something in this wise:—

TIMMINSOGRAPHIC.—By a special Timminsotype received at this office, we learn that a foul chimney was burned out at 11:40½ A. M., in the 25th Ward.

P. S. Mr. Timmins is the gentleman who climbs the poles of the local telegraph when the wires are deranged, and we give his name to the institution as an act of justice and propriety.

FITCH AND FULTONOGRAPH.—The steamboat John Smith arrived at this port, this morning, in six and a half minutes from Smith's Island. Nothing new from that popular watering place.

[We make no invidious distinctions between the claims of Messrs. Fitch and Fulton, to the merits of having invented the steamboat.

BULLOGRAPHIC.—Reading shares went up 1½ to-day.

STARANDJELLYISMS.—Policeman No. 1,446 this morning arrested a newsboy for shouting out "Ere's the latest Morseographic news, only one cent!" The urchin was discharged upon exhibiting the sheet he was vending.

VAUXOTYPE.—Mayor Vaux has issued a proclamation inviting "the people of this city to unite with those of the Commonwealth" in keeping Thanksgiving day. We hear of several persons who contemplate leaving Philadelphia on the festile occasion for the purpose of spending the day in Pennsylvania.

BUNKOLOGICAL.—A stable "out the Ridge" was set on fire last night. The Rowdy Hose was early on the ground.

DIMEOGRAPHIC.—Money was easier to-day. [Philadelphia Bulletin.

☞ The Lockport Advertiser tells of a case in that county, but gives no names, where a young man failed in business about eight years ago, and soon afterwards became blind and insane. After remaining at Utica two years he recovered his sight and was subsequently removed to Brattleboro', Vt. This fall his brother brought him to our County House, where he remained but a few days. One morning he left and walked home, to Middleport, a distance of fifteen miles. He was as insane as ever, but was provided for by the family. The Advertiser says: "He expressed himself greatly attached to "the farm" where he had been employed, but "the old man" did not pay him regularly. He was apparently improved, however, in his mind, and one morning last week, he got up from his bed perfectly sane! and commenced conversing about transactions that occurred eight years ago, as if they had but just transpired. The recovery of his mental faculties is a greater mystery than the loss of them."

A PARTHIAN THIEF.—A young rowdy-looking loafer, answering to the name of Francis Rely, was caught stealing door-mats in the Fifth Ward this forenoon, and on being brought to the Station-house was asked what his business was, answered, "Fernando Wood's my business to day." The appropriateness of the answer caused a hearty laugh among the bystanders. "You may laugh," said the thief, as he was being dragged to the cell, "you d——d Black Republicans, but Fernando Wood's the man, and you'll see."—N. Y. Times.
